STTJ DISTRICT SOCIAL STUDIES FAIR SLATED FOR MARCH 15

ST. THOMAS, USVI – The Department of Education, St. Thomas – St. John District invites the public to its annual Social Studies Fair on March 15, 2019, in Emancipation Garden from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

The Social Studies Fair, themed “Change through Time,” centers its attention on the history and culture of the Virgin Islands and abroad from 1920 – 2019. Students’ work will be on display and they will showcase their knowledge in the form of skits, poems, or other forms of performance art.

“This event encourages students to think critically as they re-enact various events throughout history,” said St. Thomas-St. John District Social Studies Coordinator Annie Smith.

Participating schools include the Addelita Cancryn Jr High School, Leonard Dober Elementary School, Yvonne Milliner-Bowsky Elementary School, Charlotte Amalie High School, Ivanna Eudora Kean High School, Jane E. Tuitt Primary School, Joseph Sibilly Elementary School, and Bertha C. Boschulte Middle School.

The community is encouraged to attend.
